

CENSORSHIP BY ARMY DEFENDED

War Department Explains Why Strictest Secrecy Is Essential.

The War Department yesterday made public a memorandum concerning the proper relationship between the army and the press in time of war, at the same time emphasizing the need of strict censorship concerning military movements. Instances of military successes resulting from information obtained from the press were cited as proof of the care which newspapers should exercise should the United States become involved in hostilities with a foreign power.

The statement says in part: "During the Crimean war the Russians gained very valuable information regarding the works in the trenches of the allied armies and the progress of the siege of Sebastopol from the English newspapers."

"In the American civil war the Northern generals obtained exact and valuable information through the Confederate papers. After the fall of Atlanta, Jefferson Davis, speaking at Macon and Palmetto, stated that measures had been taken in Tennessee and Kentucky to cut off Sherman's supplies from the North, and that having an army in his front and rear in a hostile land, he must be annihilated. These speeches, published in the Southern press, soon reached Sherman. Acting on this information and in order to keep his communication free the Federal general began his famous march to the sea through Georgia. The reports of his successful progress, which appeared in the Southern press, enabled Grant to send supplies to meet him at the coast."

"In July, 1870, Maj. Krause, of the German staff, was able by means of French newspapers to ascertain the composition and strategic disposition of all the French troops."

DR. J. P. CORRIGAN DIES ON EVE OF ORDINATION

Physician Expires at Providence Hospital While Plans Are Being Made for His Joining Priesthood.

Dr. John P. Corrigan, who for more than twenty-five years was one of the best known physicians in Rhode Island, died yesterday morning of heart disease at Providence Hospital, Washington, D. C.

For the last four years Dr. Corrigan was studying for the priesthood with the Dominican Order and was known as Brother Vincent.

Dr. Corrigan was engaged in general practice of medicine in Pawtucket, R. I., until fifteen years ago. Shortly after the death of his wife, about twenty-six years ago, the doctor wished to become a priest. He entered the novitiate of the Dominican Fathers at Somerset, Ohio. The following year he came to the Dominican House of Studies, Washington, to continue his theological studies.

Three weeks ago Dr. Corrigan suffered a heart attack, and was sent to Ocean City, Md. His life was finally despaired of, and on Monday the Very Rev. E. G. Fitzgerald, O. P., prior of the House of Studies, went to Ocean City to visit him. The prior had practically completed arrangements for the fulfillment of the doctor's ambition to become a priest, but he died yesterday morning at 9:30 o'clock.

Dr. Corrigan leaves a daughter, Sister Aquinas, O. S. D., of New York; a son, Thomas D. Corrigan, of Fall River, Mass.; three brothers and three sisters.

The funeral will be held this (Friday) morning at the Dominican College, Pawtucket, R. I., and a solemn high mass of requiem will be sung. Interment followed in Mount Olivet Cemetery. The officers of the mass are: Celebrant, Rev. J. E. Fitzgerald, O. P.; deacon, Very Rev. E. G. Fitzgerald, O. P.; subdeacon, Very Rev. F. P. O'Daniel.

PLAN FOR BIG REUNION

Sons of Confederate Veterans Appoint Arrangements Committee.

At a session of Washington Camp, No. 46, Sons of Confederate Veterans, at the "Confederate Memorial Home" last night, J. Roy Price, Wallace Streeter, and Gen. H. Oden Lake were chosen a committee to formulate plans for the Confederate reunion to be held in Washington next year.

William Everett Brockman was elected as permanent chairman of the convention committee to be chosen at the next meeting. This committee, according to a resolution adopted last night, is to co-operate with the joint committee of the Retail Merchants' Association, Chamber of Commerce, and Board of Trade.

Fred O. Lake, James F. Parker, and George P. James were admitted as new members at last night's session.

RITCHIE JOINS CAMP

Former Light-weight Champion to Go Into Military Training.

San Francisco, July 6.—Willie Ritchie, former light-weight champion, has announced his intention of learning the rudiments of another profession of fighting and will go into training next Monday as a soldier at the Monterey, Cal., military camp for civilians.

Ritchie signed the enlistment rolls as a recruit for four weeks' instruction under United States army officers. The former champion wrote his real name, G. A. Steffen.

The world's ski jumping record is held by an American who covered a distance of just under 130 feet.

HARVARD REPLACES ELMS.

Trees 40 Years Old to Be Transplanted in Unusual Manner.

Reforestation of Harvard's famous yard will soon begin, and the famous elms will again command the university grounds. Thirteen perfect specimens of the elm have been obtained in the country near by and will be transplanted in an unusual manner.

The money for the work was provided by Arthur H. Lea, of Philadelphia, a member of the class of 1880. He has engaged New York movers to uproot each of the elms, forty years old, that have been selected for Harvard's yard. The truckmen will protect every limb and every root and the moving will be done at night, when there is less evaporation of moisture from the roots.

Great craters are being dug for the new monarchs of the yard. The destruction of the Harvard elms by moths and other pests has been gradually eliminating this feature of Harvard scenery.

PLEADS AT WHITE HOUSE FOR HUSBAND'S RELEASE

Wife of Bureau Employee Urges Discharge of Militiaman—Then Baker Issues Order.

Over at Camp Ordway last night Private A. B. Thompson, of Company E, Third Infantry, heard from the lips of his plucky wife how, alone and without influence, she had sought the aid of the President in order to have her husband released from service in the District National Guard.

Entirely dependent upon Thompson for the support of herself and her two little children, Mrs. Thompson viewed with sadness the prospect of a service that would take him thousands of miles away and leave her entirely without means.

She reached Secretary Tumulty in her efforts to see the President and the latter assured her that if the facts were placed in writing he would call it officially to the attention of the chief executive.

Later Secretary Baker issued an order that permits the release of members of the National Guard who have families dependent upon them and this is expected to furnish the necessary means to have Thompson return to his position at the Bureau of Engraving and Printing.

FAMILY TAKES FOUR PRIZES AT OUTING

Buckley Contingent, with Winning Streak, Finally Barred on Hibernian Excursion.

About 4,000 members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and their families held their annual picnic at Chesapeake Beach yesterday morning. Baltimore sent a delegation of about 400, and Alexandria was represented by about fifty members.

The feature of the day's outing was the races, with a $5 gold piece as the capital prize in each event. M. F. Buckley, of the Eastern Police, was the first to come home with four of the little gold pieces. After Edward Buckley had won the shoe race and the 75-yard dash, and his sister, Mary, had collected the silver for another 75-yard dash, and his brother, Norman Buckley, had emerged victor in the 50-yard dash for boys under 18, the committee decided that the Buckley family, having taken half the prize money, should give the others a chance. All were disappointed, including Mr. and Mrs. Buckley.

Other winners were: 75-yard dash, H. L. Dixon; 75-yard dash for men, H. L. Dixon; three-legged race, Robert Burns and Lawrence Connor; 100-yard race, Dickinson, Daniel M. Hassett, official starter, was in charge of the events.

BAT AND JACK OUT TO CORNER MARKET

Baltimore, July 6.—It looks as if Bernard C. Lebowitz and Ernest Coulter were about to be driven out of the market. In order to ease the minds of some of the populace who don't carry a pugilistic Who's Who around in their vest pockets, it might be remarked that the two are not Lebowitz and Price masquerading under ring aliases of Battling Levis and Jack Dillon, respectively.

And as you are aware both Bat and Jack are prominent members of the Baltimore and Baltimore order of Make-Hay-While-the-Sun-Shines. The fighting sheriff of Stamford-Levisky is a village constable up in Connecticut, by heck—counts that day lost whose low leeching son sees not one match finished and another begun. Bat considers himself a slacker unless he fights at least eight times a week. When it comes to fighting Bat can smell a fight nine miles farther than any Corkonian and then beat him to it—provided there are enough ducks at the end of the tract. And my, but doesn't Dillon love to scrap! During a stretch of less than eight years since Jack first crawled through the hono ropes back in 1903 he has engaged in more than 200 battles, which gives him a batting average for the period of a fight a fortnight. So, you see, the sliest Jack took better than the others were only catnaps—Hooster Bear Cat naps, as it were.

Elks to Visit Capital.

Reservations have been made at the Ebbitt for 150 Elks who will arrive today for a three-day sight-seeing trip before attending the Elks national convention, which convenes in Baltimore Monday.

Pershing's Supplies Threatened. Columbus, N. Mex., July 6.—The food supply of the punitive expedition was threatened by the beginning today of the rainy season. A terrific rain and sandstorm swept over the district, blocking the passage of truck trains.

PEONS RESISTLESS UNDER CARRANZA

Pershing's Force Hears of Mexican Food Riots at San Luis Potosi.

(By the International News Service.) Gen. Pershing's Headquarters in Mexico via radio to Columbus, N. Mex., July 6.—General dissatisfaction among the laboring classes of Mexico is spreading in the wake of the punitive column. The contrast of conditions under the American occupation and under Carranza government has been so great that the peons are growing restless.

Reports of gold being paid to natives for work and supplies by the American army have gone broadcast. Contrasted with this is the Mexican military authorities running over the country selling "in the name of the law" supplies which they desire and tendering in return the paper currency which they force the natives to accept for five times its face value.

Reports reached headquarters today of food riots at San Luis Potosi. More than one hundred starving women and children tramped to the governor's palace crying: "We want food for our starving little ones." The governor addressed the throng, replying: "I have none to give you, and but little for my own."

"Then," shouted the women, "may the President come to save us." Other took up the cry, refusing to be silenced. Finally the governor was forced to call out the troops and the women were dispersed, several being severely beaten before they would leave.

Gen. Pershing's men and horses are in the finest condition and are ready to withstand the hardest kind of campaigning.

FLESSNER ANOTHER REAL KAYO KING

Baltimore, Md., July 6.—Judging by the amount of talk heard in pugilistic circles, the advance sale of seats and the fact that a popular scale of prices will be instituted, the boxing card to be offered by the American Athletic Association next Saturday afternoon at Oriole Park promises to attract a large-sized audience. It is the first of the outdoor Saturday afternoon shows which Henry Blotzer will conduct during the baseball season while the Orioles are on the road.

Of the boys on the card on Saturday at Oriole Park none shows a better record than Steve Flessner, who will appear against Dick Bosse. This bout was booked last week, but the sudden illness of Flessner prevented the match taking place. Interest then was at a high point and the postponement has only served to increase it.

Joe Chaney, who is working with Flessner and Young Chaney for their matches with the Eastern Police, is also anxious for hostilities to start. When Joe went on in a ten-rounder at the last show of the American Athletic Association and won, he showed real ability. McGurn, for Miller promises to give the public two new prize fighters to his last bout. He tackles Mike Uraine and Herman Miller promises plenty of action. Uraine will scarcely pull any of the Eastern Police, who are faced by Joe McCurn, for Miller promises to give the Washington bluecoat plenty of action.

Young Chaney is expecting a busy time with Gus Lewis, the Philadelphia who has been out of the ring for some time in all of his recent matches.

FAIL TO QUALIFY ON MARKSMEN COURSE

The Army and Navy Union traveled to Winthrop yesterday and spent the day on the range of the United States Marines. Eight teams competed, with each other; seven shot over the expert course, while the eighth team failed to qualify.

The team matches resulted as follows: Company B, 488; Company A, 483; Company L, 462; Company D, 424; second, 442; Company K, 413, and Staff, 341.

None of the twenty who shot for the Sharpshooters' Honors qualified. Of the seven who tried for the Expert Degree the following three were successful: Hummer, 153; J. C. Bunn, 142, and T. J. Barber, 141.

Twenty-two of the contestants for marksmen course qualified. They were: Monrore, 75; Lee, 170; Reinburg, 88; Bryant, 182; G. Smith, 182; Carr, 77; Wilharr, 164; L. Sargent, 78; A. C. Ogle, 83; T. M. Sharkey, 181; W. E. Gregg, 172; R. Fort, 82; C. W. Heasel, 170; M. E. Serburg, 153; G. F. Gude, 152; M. E. Serburg, 153; W. H. Hinner, 190; E. J. Matley, 152; W. Stull, 154, and W. H. Lee, 154.

Central League Divides Season. Grand Rapids, Mich., July 6.—President Emerson, Dickinson, of the Central League, has announced that because of the great number of postponed games to be played off in double-headers, the Central League season would be divided, the first half-season having ended yesterday and a new season starting today.

Dayton has been awarded the pennant for the first half-season. If Dayton wins the pennant for the second half-season it will get the 1916 pennant. If another team wins, there will be a championship between Dayton and the second winner.

Nassovian Wins Stake. New Market, England, July 6.—Nassovian, owned by J. Sanford, an American, won the Princess of Wales stakes, value $10,000, here today.

Motor Gossip. Capt. Harrison, of the Sixth precinct, has been appointed chairman of a committee consisting of three police captains and three lieutenants to pass upon the question as to whether or not automobile headlights comply with the law in that they are not blinding so far that they tested a number of cars. A spot in the White Lot back of the Treasury Department is used as the testing grounds, and the cars are required to approach the board with lights lit, but with the dimmers. This question of whether automobile headlights comply with the law against a glaring ray has long been a point of dispute. The matter has been taken to court on one occasion, but no satisfactory decision to either those charged with the enforcement of the law or the automobile user was reached. It remained largely a matter of discretion with each individual officer. So far the police have passed upon a couple of types of lenses which comply with the law.

R. K. Chase, factory representative of the Haynes Motor Company, is in the city for a few days as guest of D. Bralley Gish, local distributor for the car.

J. C. Barber has returned from Newark, N. J., where on July Fourth he lowered the track record, covering the half mile dirt course in 35.5 seconds, in his Eye-Cee Bee car. In the handicap race he finished second, setting the pace until the fifth lap, when he blew three tires on one tire. It was a sort of a Rayfield race, as the car which won was equipped with a Rayfield carburetor as was Barber's machine. Barber also carried on his car a Boyce Motometer and Gabriel Snubbers.

What Charles T. Jeffery, president of the Thomas B. Jeffery Company, of Kenosha, Wis., thinks of advertising: "I have always been a great believer in consistent advertising. There are many reasons why I advertise, any one of which would be sufficient. For example, I advertise because advertising is the greatest starter of conversation and its conversation that makes a thing well known."

"The American people—in fact, all people—like to own things that are well known. Ask a man what car he drives, the brand of his haberdashery or his hat, and 99 times out of 100 he mentions those that are extensively advertised. He wouldn't be satisfied unless he could; he wants to own and wear the things concerning whose quality there is no question."

"I advertise in the magazines, farm papers and newspapers because each has a field of its own. I advertise in the magazines because they give us a national background. I use the farm journals because they are the farmers' trade papers, read by him from cover to cover. As for the newspapers: "Well, the newspapers are in a class by themselves. I advertise in them because they are flexible mediums, capable of giving the quickest action. That is, they provide the means for us to concentrate our forces on a certain city or community. They make possible a fine art of advertising strategy. And they get quick action when it comes to sales."

"The newspaper is undoubtedly the most personal medium of advertising. I mean by that, that they get nearer to the people. The newspaper is the greatest purveyor of facts in existence. And since advertising is nothing more than one method of conveying facts, it is a fact that it follows that no advertising campaign is complete without including certain newspapers."

MACHINIST NINE AND BUREAU IN 4-TO-4 TIE

A large crowd of fans were on hand yesterday at the Potomac League grounds and witnessed a thrilling 4-to-4 tie game between the Bureau Athletic Club and the Navy Yard Machinists.

Mitchell, for the Machinists, was touched for nine safe singles, but he kept them well scattered, while Hammer, who worked for the Bureau nine, allowed seven safe blows. Giovannetti's home run drive was one of the longest hits ever witnessed on the Potomac League grounds. Score:
